

Meetings, training & events @ the maynard

hotel • bar • restaurant

The Maynard in Grindleford is the ideal venue for your corporate meetings, events and training courses.

The hotel is only 20 minutes from the centre of Sheffield but you would never know it! You'll be in the world-renowned Peak District National Park with immediate access to fantastic scenery and natural environments.

- We are very easy to find and there's plenty of free parking.
- We're a very short walk to the Sheffield/Manchester railway and buses from Sheffield stop outside, so its easily accessible by public transport.
- We have large meeting rooms with free wi-fi, plenty of natural light and mobility access by lift if required.
- The Maynard is well known for our helpful, friendly staff and hospitality.
- You'll enjoy the superb restaurant and Chef's locally sourced menu.
- Relax at the end of the day in the bar with local ales and speciality gins.
- Enjoy our large lawns, garden areas and beautiful countryside views.

The Maynard is a popular venue for corporate meetings and events, getting you out of the town or the city to re-energise yourself in this beautiful location where our staff understand how make your meeting or event both worthwhile and enjoyable.

We're also popular for training courses and Learning & Development events which can include opportunities to go out and use the attractions and activities found in the National Park. If you're planning a team away day or L&D event, please take a look at our suggestions overleaf.

Meeting and function rooms

The Maynard has two large meeting/training/function rooms both with plenty of space and natural daylight.

The Windsor Room

Situated on the first floor, accessible by the main hotel reception, The Windsor Room boasts panoramic views of the Peak District and the ideal place for an intimate business meeting or lunch. The bay windows fill the room with an abundance of natural light giving it a light and airy feel which is perfect for training days or board meetings.

The Chatsworth Suite

The location of The Chatsworth Suite is completely private with lift access to the first floor. This is a room with plenty of character and charisma and is ideal for larger meetings. Accommodating up to 120 people with the use of the private garden it provides the perfect setting for meetings and training events.
